

Name: _____

Date: ~~11/11/2015~~ / /

Vocab to date:

Terms:

- a. Injury
- b. Illness
- c. Check-call-care
- d. Barriers to act
- e. EMR
- f. EMT
- g. Life-threatening emergency
- h. Non-life threatening emergency

Definitions:

- 1) Situation that does not have an immediate impact on a person's ability to circulate oxygenated blood
- 2) Example includes heart attack or allergic reaction; inside the body
- 3) Situation that does have an immediate impact on a person's ability to circulate oxygenated blood
- 4) Emergency action steps
- 5) Emergency medical technician
- 6) Emergency medical responder
- 7) Reasons for not acting or for hesitating to act in an emergency situation
- 8) Damage to body from an external force

B. Write a response to the following scenario.

A terrified mother pulls her child from the bottom of a pool while you, a neighbor, calls 9-1-1 for help. You see the boy's limp body. The mother looks to you helplessly.

- When dialing 911 for a medical emergency, what vital information should be provided to the operator?
- Include who should be the first person to hang-up.
- Describe your actions, which will help save a life.

When complete, submit to the teacher. Be sure to thank the teacher for being here today. Thank you for being in this class. This work is the best of my ability. Signed: _____